

Yan Peng (Ms.)
Regional Director for East Asia
C40

Yan Peng serves as the Regional Director for East Asia at C40. In this position she handles a wide spectrum of work across East Asia involving city engagement on low carbon and adaptation strategies, identifying cities' needs and priorities, and collaborating with C40 initiative teams. Yan has over 16 years of experience in environmental public policy and social impact assessments. As the Director in China for Clean Air Asia prior to joining C40, Yan led the organisation's China programme for eight years focusing on city air quality management, capacity building in collaboration with the Ministry of Environmental Protection, and energy efficiency and greenhouse gas and air pollutant emissions reduction from freight and logistics sector. Yan holds a Masters of Law degree from Peking University and studied at the Johns Hopkins University-Nanjing University Center for Chinese and American Studies, as well as the University of Toronto, Canada.

